

Thad Farnham was born in Colorado and was raised in Michigan and Wisconsin. His family moved to California in 1977 and Thad worked in residential construction before beginning his own construction contracting business in 1980. He was a successful contractor in Ojai, California until moving to Ketchum in 1989 with his wife, Annette, also a prosperous local business owner. Their son, Sam, graduated from Community School in 2009 and is currently teaching English in China.

Thad has been a thriving self employed building contractor in the Wood River Valley for 20 years and has built over 40 homes including three affordable housing units at River Glenn south of Ketchum. In 1998 Thad received a real estate license which he uses in conjunction with development projects in Twin Falls, Hailey and Ketchum. He is currently an associate with Windermere of Sun Valley.
